- The two teams must wear 2 (two) colors of the equipment (dark and light) to distinguish them from each other and the match officials.
- Each goalkeeper must wear colors that are distinguishable from the other players and the match officials.
- If two goalkeepers' jerseys are the same color and neither has another jersey, the referees allow the match to be played.
- Undershirts must be a single color which is the same color as the main color of the jersey sleeve or must feature a pattern/colors which exactly replicate(s) the jersey sleeve.
- Compression undershorts/tights must be the same color as the main color of the shorts or the lowest part of the shorts - players of the same team must wear the same colors.
- The "home" team must wear dark jerseys, and the "away" team must wear light jerseys. However, if both teams agree, they can change jersey colors based on the decision of the discipline referee.

11.3. Slogans, statements, images and advertising on the uniform (equipment)

- All advertising (sponsor/partner) logos must be coordinated with the Organizer in accordance with Regulatory documents.
- Uniform (equipment) must not have any political, religious or personal slogans, statements or images. Players must not reveal vests and undershorts/tights that show political, religious, personal slogans, statements or images, or any other types of advertising other than the manufacturer's logo. For any offense the player and/or the team will be sanctioned by the Organizer. Other sports uniform (equipment) requirements are established by the Rules and Regulations.

11.4. Numbering on the equipment

- The player numbering principle is normally from 1 to 15, with number 1 reserved for a goalkeeper unless stipulated otherwise in the Regulatory documents and/or by a decision of the Organizer (Chief Panel of Judges).
- The number of each player must be visible on their back and be distinguishable from the main color of the jersey.
- A number under which the player was registered for the Competition must be mandatorily 25 cm high (excluding the border), placed on the jersey's back and centered. For striped or multi-color jerseys the personal number must be placed inside a rectangular-shaped insert of a solid single color.

12. Final provisions

12.1. The Technical Rules come into effect from the moment they are approved by the Organizer. Revisions and additions to the Technical Rules require approval from the Organizer and will come into effect immediately upon approval, unless otherwise stated by the Organizer's decision without additional notification sent to participants.

- 12.2. Matters not governed by these Technical Rules shall be resolved in accordance with WPC Rules of Phygital Sport, other Regulatory documents, the decisions made by the Chief Panel of Judges and other applicable Regulatory documents. If necessary, the Organizer has the right to use regulatory documents and rules of relevant international sports federations.
- 12.3. If necessary, in the event of discrepancies between the norms of the Technical Rules, WPC Rules of Phygital Sport and other Regulatory documents, the interpretation of the norms of the respective documents, as well as the final decision on overcoming the relevant contradictions, will be made by the Organizer. This decision will be guided by legal precedent, statutory analogy, as well as the principles of good faith, reasonableness, and fairness.

Competition format

1. Teams participating in the Competition are divided into two groups of 4 teams, where matches are played in the “GSL without a 5th match” format the Organizer determines the composition of the groups by a draw. Teams ranked 1st to 3rd advance to the next stage of the Competition where they will compete in matches using the Single Elimination system, starting from the semifinals in the following order:

- semifinal;
- 3rd place match;
- Final.

The tournament matches are played following the fixed bracket (as outlined in Appendix 2).

2. The “GSL without a 5th Match” format is a system of matches at the group stage, in which all group members play 2 matches in the following order:
 - in the 1st round, the group members are divided into pairs by draw;
 - the winners of each pair meet in the second round to play the match for the first and second place in the group, respectively the winner of this match takes 1st place in the group, while the loser takes 2nd place;
 - the teams that lost in the first round compete against each other in the second round in a match for 3rd and 4th place. The winner of this match takes 3rd place in the group, while the loser takes 4th place.
3. Teams ranked 1st in groups advance directly to the semifinals.

Teams play semifinal matches to get through to the final. The winners of semifinal matches proceed to the final, while losers play a match for the third place. The team winning the Final match becomes the Competition winner.
